FROM THE EDITOR

I want to thank all of you for sending in group sheets of your Martin ancestors. These group sheets will be published in future issues of the quarterly. May I encourage those of you that I have not heard from to send me a group sheet on your earliest Martin ancestors. [I will supply group sheets on request]. Please try to make the information as complete as you can. I will check my files and answer as many queries as possible in each issue and do additional research for further assistance.

If you will let me know which counties you would like to see records from I will make an additional effort to research and publish those first. (Census, probate, marriage, deeds, etc.).

Beginning with Volume III, #1 (May 1977) I will begin to publish complete documented pedigrees and abstracts on all Martin information in the Draper Manuscripts.

If you have researched counties for Martins and have records to contribute please send them in for publication. They are always welcomed.

Regretably the subscription price will be increased to $8.00 per volume beginning with Volume III, #1 (May 1977). Due to increased subscriptions and contributions there will be more information and more pages in each issue. A surname index will be printed in the fourth issue of each Volume beginning with Volume II (February 1977). A surname index for Volume I will be available in February. Look for the price in the February issue.

WILLIAM E. MARTIN FAMILY

William Martin was a part of a colony of people that moved from Bridgeport [Harrison Co.] West Virginia where he was born, to Muncie, Ind.

He enlisted in the Union Army at the age of eighteen and was assigned to Sherman's Division, following the famed general through Georgia. He was mustered out of the service on August 24, 1865.

He married Miss Rachel Mott of Muncie, Indiana. Their children were: Charles Elsworth, John W., Lushion Albert, Oda Idella, George William, Lenna Pearl, Cora P., and Olive Telitha.

In the winter of 1888, William and Rachel moved their family to old Greer County [Okla.]. They came by train to Vernon, Texas where they arrived in the midst of a raging snowstorm. The Martins filed on land near the Martha intersection on Hwy. 283. They built a half dug-out until they could haul lumber from Vernon and Quanah, Texas to build a house.

After the death of Mrs. Martin in 1905, William married Mrs. Vandus Britton Harper. One daughter, Annie Glendolen Martin, was born to this couple. Mrs. Harper had moved to the Blair area in 1901 after the death of her husband at Vernon, Texas. The Harper children were Sherman McKinley and Eula Rozella. The Martins were members of the First Baptist Church in Blair. Mrs. Martin died in 1934 and the husband died in 1936. Relatives still living in Jackson Co, Okla. include Gladys White, Harold

James A. Martin, one of the most prominent civil engineers and surveyors in Arkansas, residing at 607 W. Fifth St., Little Rock, was born in Pulaski Co., Ark. & has made his home almost all of his life. His father was Jared C. Martin, a native of what was then the Cherokee Nation in Georgia, who was a son of John and Elizabeth (Allen) Martin of Ireland. The grandparents removed from Ga. to Cape Girardeau, Mo. by wagon at an early period where their son, Jared C., was reared, and remained until his 15th year, when he came to Pulaski Co. to join a bro., Hutchinson Martin, who had preceded him about 3 years. The bro. was living at that time on the river front, opposite the foot of Main Street. The site has long since been washed away and the Ark. River now flows where his house stood. Jared operated a ferryboat for his bro. for some time after his arrival and then carried the mail for 2 years from Little Rock to Ark. Post. He was subsequently engaged in farming & followed that calling for the remainder of his life. He represented Pulaski Co. in the state legislature 2 terms & was then appointed to fill an unexpired term of Gen. John Hutt, who was removed from the office of state treasurer & at the expiration of that term was elected for the succeeding one. His death occurred on November 7, 1857 at the age of fifty-one.

Central Arkansas Sketches (Continued)

His wife before marriage was Miss Mary Douglass, of Sumner Co., Tenn., who was born in 1809. They were the parents of 11 children of whom 5 are yet living, 4 sons & 1 daughter: James A., William A., Mollie D. (wife of James J. Martin of Little Rock), Jared C., Jr. & Henry G. (also civil engineer of Little Rock). The mother died Feb. 14, 1877, at the age of 67 years and both parents are buried on the old homestead in Fourche Twp., Pulaski Co. They were members of the Christian Church & devout Christian people. James A., the principal of this sketch, was reared on the homestead farm and received the best education offered by the schools of the period. His father at one time erected a school house himself & employed the best teachers to be found, but afterwards sent James to Sumner Co., Tenn. where he attended school for one year. After his return to Ark. he commenced farming and when 22 years old he was married to Miss Huldah Tracy Toncray of Memphis, Tenn., a dau. of Silas T. & Orpah (Hansbrough) Toncray. After his marriage he continued farming for one year and then purchased his present residence. Mr. Martin studied surveying with a man by the same name, but no relation and in the fall of 1853 he commenced surveying for the government, remaining at that occupation for 6 years. He put in 4 years as Deputy State Treasurer, under treasurers John Quindley & Oliver Basham and was appointed treasurer on the death of the latter who was killed at Pilot Knob, Mo. During the last 2 years of the war he was a member of Capt. Watkins' company in Hawthorne's regiment and served as clerk in the adjutant's office under Gen. Fagan most of the time. He subsequently served in the same capacity under Gen. Hawthorne & spent the last 4 months of his service in the Topographical Bureau of the engineer's department at Shreveport, La. Since the war he has been engaged in engineering and surveying over the states of Ark., Kansas, Mo., La. and Indian Territory & assisted in locating the Cairo & Fulton RR (now the Iron Mt.) & the Little Rock, Miss. Dr. J. W. Martin, merchant, Warren, Ark. is one of the pioneers of Bradley Co. & during his eventful life has probably experienced more hardships than any other man in the county. The father was of English descent & a farmer. They reared a family of 12 children to maturity & 6 are now living. He began practicing in Warren in 1846 when he embarked in the mercantile business which he has since carried on. During the four years of the war his practice was all charity & he was obliged to turn his attention to his present business. The firm is now Martin & Goodwin. The Doctor has been a citizen of Bradley Co. for over 45 years and although he has been through a great deal of exposure, etc., he has lost but few days business on account of sickness. He is the owner of considerable real estate and is wide awake business man. He was married in 1849 to Miss Mary E.
